

St Oran's College
Music Scholarship Application Form

In 2012 a music scholarship will be available for the study of a nominated orchestral instrument. All lessons will be taught through the established music itinerant scheme during school hours. Previous musical experience would be valuable but not necessary. Any current student of St Oran's College is eligible to apply for the 2012 Scholarship.

All scholarships shall be reviewed in the 3rd term to ensure that the student is continuing to perform at a high level. The TIC of music shall consult with the music tutor and sit in on a lesson.

Scholarships shall be awarded for one year only with reapplication possible for the following year.

In 2012, the scholarship will covers half a year's fees for itinerant teacher music tuition for the 2012 year taken through the St Oran's College Music Itinerant scheme.
